C O N C E R T C H O I R S E N I O R S

Justin Cord Adams - A two-year CC veteran, Justin sang with Chamber Singers this year and Men's Chorus for the last three. He continues to sing with his church choir. He has performed on the EHS stage in A Midsummer's Night Dream and Noises Off! His favorite choir memories include Chambers and the art museum in Chicago. He plans to "worry about college for a while longer, then go."

Aarthi Kumar Belani - "Arth Vader," a Psycho Second Soprano in CC for two years, has performed with the Chamber Singers this year; in Anything Goes, Treble Ensemble, Happenin' '95, and Current Jam '96; and with the DjiboutiTraps at such EHS blowouts as the '96 bonfire and Environmental Jamnesty '97. "Atari Bologna" will someday revenge all of Dr. P.'s low jibes about her height. As a Stanford President's Scholar, this fall she will begin to qualify herself for an office at the U.N. building.

Nicole Kathryn Beltrand - Nikki is a first-year Psycho Second Soprano in CC. She has also participated in Hornettes, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), and TEC. She is bonkers for Beanies and loved choir tour '97. Her future plans begin with Concordia College this fall where she will study occupational therapy; her plans continue with marriage, children, happiness, and God.

Benjamin Bishop - Ben has been a CC tenor for two years and has recently performed with the Chamber Singers, with Men's Chorus, and in a senior piano recital last fall. Before trading his tap shoes for track spikes, he performed in Anything Goes. He ran cross-country and is currently a co-captain of the track and field team. This summer he'll be a Summer Shades instructor; he urges all K-5 students to sign up to watch birds or make pinball machines.

Julia Neff Carlis - "Clausula, Queen of the Amazons" is a two-year CC and Chamber Singers veteran. She is the alto II section leader, a member of the '96-'97 All-State Women's Choir, captain of the Quiz Bowl team, and an active thespian, having done everything from acting to stage managing to designing lights. Her favorite memories include Chambers sleepovers and choir tours to D.C. and Chicago. Julia will study something at the University of Minnesota.

Lisa Marie Carlson - Concert Bandie and first-year CC member Lisa has been active in Bible study and singing at her church. Her future plans, though indefinite, include college.

Lora Jeanne Copus - "Cope-Dog" is a two-year CC veteran who sang with the Regional, MN State, and National Honor Choirs. She has performed in the musicals Oklahoma, and Anything Goes at Edina. A pianist, guitarist, lifeguard, snowboarder, and TECster, Lora will always remember D.C. in '96 and going "on a mission from Bob" with choir to Chicago this year. She will attend Luther College on a music scholarship and turn in her CC robe sometime in the future.

Ryan Reid Davies - A pianist of seven years' experience, Ryan has been a CC tenor for two years and has sung with the Men's Chorus for three. He is also a member of the Edina Junior Gold state championship team. Ryan will always remember choir tours to D.C. and Chicago and Current Jam '96. He'll be at the University of Wisconsin-Madison this fall.

Ben Davison - "Jumpy Jim" plays with Concert Band, Jazz Band, and the pit orchestra for musicals. He has sung with CC for one year, sings with Men's Chorus, and is a well-rounded thespian who has done both tech work and acting. Active in Odyssey of the Mind and Youth Serving Youth, he will study mathematics or optics at Macalester College this fall.

Max Edward Dorn - First-year CC member Ed also sings with Men's Chorus and St. Patrick's Youth Choir. He loved singing "Requiem" with choir and plans to attend college next year.

Robert Vincent Giampietro - "G" is a two-year CC veteran who has also performed with the Chamber Singers, with Men's Chorus, and in Anything Goes. He is a Student Council representative and Images co-editor. Next year at Yale University while preparing for a career in advertising, he'll remember Current Jam '96, reading and voting on Images, and winning the ComedySportz state tournament.

C O N C E R T C H O I R S E N I O R S

Anne Dunbar Gordon - Not only a pianist, guitarist, and bassist, Anne is also a first-year CC member—part of the “A2 clique”—and senior class president. She is co-editor of Zephyrus, a Tangents staff writer, one of the Project Earth leaders, and a member of Amnesty International. She jump-started her plan to become a world traveller after college by spending two months in Israel over third quarter.

Jordan Lucas Hadler - A CC first-year member and member of the Men's Chorus, “Nierce” has enjoyed M.A.N.I.A.C.S., E-Lacrosse, synchronized swimming (with Kenno), and COATES in high school. The passing down of the coates and when Dr. peeped snooce will always be his favorite choir memories. Mr. Hadler plans to join the P-Funk Allstars.

Laura Jane Hamer - Laurie has taken voice lessons for six years and been a CC member for one. She has performed in the musicals Anything Goes at EHS and Footsteps of Faith at her church. “M.C. Hamer” spent the past year tutoring ESL students and volunteering at Rakhma Peace Home. She'll miss feeling Aarthi's muscles when she's shouting “GO COUGARS!” at Brigham Young University this fall.

James Douglas Havens - “Jimbo” has been a CC baritone for two years. He plans to continue cheerleading next year at the University of Minnesota.

Kristina Kendra Jenkins - Kristy is a two-year veteran of both CC and Chamber Singers. She is also one of the endangered Concert Band species. Throughout high school she has enjoyed acting in the musicals Anything Goes and Guys and Dolls, not to mention Chambers '96, singing in Current Jam on “Think,” and choir tours to D.C. and Chicago. Next year she plans to study psychology and music at college.

Patricia Jenson - Patty is a first-year CC member as well as one of the Bel Canto Voices. She has performed at Child's Play and the Guthrie Theaters, in the Minnesota Opera “Rigoletto,” and on the EHS stage in Anything Goes, Charlie's Aunt, Oklahoma, and A Midsummer's Night Dream. She plans to major in theater at George Washington University.

Heidi Dione Juujarvi - “Sweet Thang” has been a voice student of Char Rossin's for three years. A member of Student Council and a “Wild Woman of Chicago,” Heidi is also a first-year CC member who plans to become a social worker after attending Hollins College.

Matthias John Kennedy XXII - A two-year CC veteran, “Kenno” enjoyed winning the state championship this year in “V-Sticks”; he has played Varsity Hockey since '95. When he isn't practicing for Men's Chorus, “Double Deuce” can be found at M.A.N.I.A.C.S. and synchronized swimming with “Nierce,” not to mention listening to “Live at the BBC” I and II. When he's a designer of championship putt-putt courses, he'll always remember choir tours '96 and '97 and Current Jam '96 and '97.

Thomas Edward King - “Kinger” is a first-year CC member who also sings with the Men's Chorus. He is enjoying Current Jam and loves sitting next to Hansen in choir. He is a varsity football player and belongs to the FCA and society of the D.A. He plans to attend college and later marry and have little “Kingers.”

Laura Kimberley Kurtt - “Gooser” has been a member of the Treble Choir, Varsity Choir, and Varsity Ensemble. Also known as “Loony Bird,” she is a first-year CC soprano who sings at her church. A member of the track team, the youth group LifeLine, and SEMP, Laura will study elementary education at the University of Minnesota-Duluth. But she will always remember staying up late and pulling pranks with Laura H., Lisa, and Megan on choir tour '97.

Michael Kelly Lindemann - “Slim,” also known as “Ginky,” came to CC this year after two years in Varsity Choir. He's been seen "learning 'em," and he'll never forget the passing down of the coates and when Dr. peeped snooce. Mike's future plans are to "Live and let die," as G.N.R. so quotably stated.

Amanda Gaye Lyon - Psycho Soprano II Mandy is a two-year CC veteran and has participated in Hornettes, Shooters, TEC, and FCA. She is bonkers for Beanies, choir tours to D.C. and Chicago, and "feelin' the breeze at the National Cathedral." Her future plans include the University of Denver, love, cute kids, and life with God.

Graham Robert Meyer - Two-year CC veteran, Chamber singer "Grahambo" has also sung with the Colonial Chorale for two years. A piano student, Temple Baptist tutor, Sunday School teacher, and TECster, Mr. Meyer loved choir tour '97 (especially Charlie's curious wardrobe distribution and Jeff's incomprehensible story). He plans to take over Princeton University next year, and then the world!

Robert Thomas Miller - Bobby, a first-year CC member, can always be found at Men's Chorus. He can also be seen playing football, "learning 'em," jammin', and walkin' the plank/tightrope. In the future, on a world tour with his band, Pickett Fence, he'll always remember the passing down of the coates and when Dr. peeped snooce.

Elisabeth Jane Misselt - Betsy has been a Treble Singer, Varsity Choir member, and CC soprano for one year each. She loved tour in Chicago this year. Betsy is an athlete on the varsity soccer and downhill ski teams who will attend Wheaton College this fall.

Brett Allen Nichols - "Snick" is a two-year CC veteran who loved choir tour '96 to D.C. A key component of the varsity cross country, basketball, and track teams, he will run and play basketball at Hamline University next year. Later, he will start a family.

Rosalie Ann Norris - A two-year CC veteran and Chamber Singer, Rose is very familiar with the EHS stage, having performed in three musicals and three plays; Rosie was Sarah in Guys and Dolls and has been actively performing and teching for three years. Her plans include studying theater or music and songwriting; she'll remember choir tours to Chicago and D.C. (she quotes, "Virginia is for Lovers") and she'll miss hangin' with Chambers—"O Tannenbaum!"

Emily Grace Paulson - First-year CC alto E.P. enjoyed "feeling the breeze at WBL" and choir tour '97. She is a member of the Hornettes, Shooters, and "A2 clique." She'll be making her future plans at the University of Indiana.

Megan Kristi Pedersen - Megan has studied voice with Deb Schlager for three years. A first-year CC member, she loved tour in Chicago, and she's loving Current Jam '97. Megan was an EHS cheerleader for two years. She will spend the next few years at the University of Minnesota-Duluth.

Julie Ramsland - "Ramsdogg," a two-year CC veteran, is one of the '97 State Alpine Ski Champs (THE '97 State Alpine Ski Champ). She is also a member of the Student Council, Shooters, "A2 clique," and Homecoming Court. She loved "feelin' the breeze in the National Cathedral" on choir tour '96. Next year she'll be Ramsdoggin' as usual at Boston College.

Jacob Lawrence Reding - A veteran of CC for two-years, member of the Men's Chorus, and athlete on the cross-country and ski teams, Jake has played guitar for five years. He loved Current Jam '96 and choir tours to D.C. and Chicago. He'll be at the University of Wisconsin-Madison this fall.

Christian Neil Richardson - Chris, a CC member for two years, could be seen in this year's musical, Guys and Dolls, in which he played the part of Nathan Detroit. Captain of the Alpine Ski team, Chris enjoys hangin' in the back row with the Doz and the rest of the Tenor IIs. He plans to go pre-med next year at Albertson College in Idaho.

C O C E R T C H O I R S E N I O R S

Emily Elise Rosch - A first-year CC alto and a Hornette from '95 to '97, "Concha" will be dancing in Disney World in the very very near future. Emily's favorite choir memories include being a part of the "A2 clique" and eating Starburst™ with Matthew.

Antigoni Sophia Sander - "Tigs" has sung and hung with CC for two years. Her other musical experiences include performing in Anything Goes and Treble Ensemble. She has also been a performer with the Children's Theater Company since '94. Next year at college Tigs'll study theater and communications—but she'll always remember choir tours to D.C. and Chicago.

Jennifer Irene Schnell - Jennie has sung with CC for one year, Angelica Cantanti for eight years, and her voice teacher Char for three years. This "Wild Woman of Chicago" is a tennis player and has participated in TEC and St. Patrick's church youth group. She'll never forget ice cream at Ghirardelli's on tour in Chicago. At St. Olaf this fall Jennie will begin to study history.

Adam David Scoll - Two-year CC veteran "Woo" was an orchestra and a Zephyrus member for one year each. His loyalty to cross country running, however, has lasted four years; Adam has run track for three years. His favorite choir memories are Current Jam '96 and choir tours to D.C. and Chicago. Next year studying history at Drake University he'll prepare to become a—gasp!—high school teacher.

Erin Scott - "ER" has sung with CC for one year and played the flute for seven. A three-year voice student and a church group leader, she's loved geekin' out with Heidi, Jennie, and Taylor in choir. This fall, Erin's headed for the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Kelley Siemon - A two-year CC veteran, a basketball and volley ball player, a loyal Shooters, Student Council, and Homecoming Court member: that's "Siemo." Siemo loved TEC and Bobo's, and she'll always remember "feelin' the breeze at the National Cathedral," not to mention choir tours to D.C. and Chicago. To serve the Lord and play basketball at Notre Dame are Kelley's future plans.

Britt-Marie Sondreal - Beyond other community theater, Britt has performed in six shows at the Children's Theater Company and in two EHS theater productions. She is a two-year CC veteran whose favorite choir memories include tour '96 to Washington, D.C. Next year she'll attend Wheaton College and try to pursue an acting career.

Emily Rae Taylor - "Tay," in addition to being a first-year CC member, is captain of the varsity swim team, runs track, and sings with Cathedral choir and Hi-League at Mt. Olivet Church. This "Wild Woman of Chicago" loved choir tour '97 and will be at St. Olaf College next year.

Joy Ellen Thompson - Senior soloist and two-year CC veteran "Squid" has performed with the Chamber Singers and as an EHS thespian/costumier in Anything Goes, Guys and Dolls, and Noises Off! Joy loved touring D.C. with choir in '96 ("Virginia is for lovers!"). She'll miss Current Jam and "Perkins Forever!" when she goes to Webster to become the best choir director in the world. She also plans on breeding and showing champion mice.

Andy Whipple - Two-year CC veteran "Whip" is a cheerleader, diver, snowboarder, and Men's Chorus member who reminds us that "All that is gold does not glitter" (J.R.R. Tolkien). He'll continue cheerleading next year at the University of Minnesota and will always remember D.C. in '96.

Rachael Zweigorod - Rachael has been a CC member for one year, which is the same length of time she spent last year as an exchange student in Nagoya, Japan. Rachael has performed in "church choirs 'n' stuff" and in Anything Goes, with Treble Singers, and with Treble Ensemble. She loved being in "the chilliest room on tour." When she isn't pondering fascism (during choir), Rachael is either at Images, Amnesty International, Mock Trial, or church activities. This fall she will attend the University of South Carolina.
